

Getting It Right Suggested Discussion Questions

Getting It Right* is a fast-paced, suspense story about family, race, PTSD, grit, and resilience.

1. What was your overall impression of the book? What issues came up for you?
2. Which characters display grit and resilience? How has grit and resilience played out in your life?
3. Every character in the book broke the bond of trust with someone. Explore the issues of trust in the various relationships within the story.
4. On any given day in America over 400 children are in foster care. Kara and her siblings aged out of the system, as do over 60,000 children a year. What are some of the lasting effects of this for Kara, Tuesday, and Flyer? What are your feelings about adoption?
5. To what degree did it surprise you that the three friends never spoke about the abuse? People often discuss PTSD in terms of returning soldiers. How did you react to Kara's diagnosis and experiences?
6. Kara and Alex's father wants to "make things right." In your experience, can someone make up for past transgressions? Did Worth Lawrence redeem himself?
7. What role does race play in this novel? To what degree did Alex's feelings about race change?

If you enjoyed Getting It Right, please write a review on Amazon, Good Reads, BookBub, and any other online sites you visit seeking and sharing information about books. Karen would love to receive your questions about the book at www.kareneosborne.com She is an international, popular, and engaging speaker. Invite her to your book club, library, or conference.

writerkareneosborne@gmail.com

Follow Karen:

www.kareneosborne.com (Video podcast What Are You Reading? What Are You Writing?)

Karen E. Osborne \(@kareneosborne\) / Twitter

\(20+\) Karen E Osborne, Author | Facebook

Karen E. Osborne - YouTube

<https://www.instagram.com/writerkareneosborne/>

<https://www.bookbub.com/profile/karen-e-osborne>