Discussion Questions

In this page-turning, family-drama, and suspense yarn there are themes of #MeToo, trust, toxic secrets, the consequences of bad decisions, forgiveness, retribution, and redemption.

1. What are your overall takeaways from the book?
2. There were times when I wanted to scream at Roxy. If you were her dear friend instead of Dallas, what would you have done or said differently? What do you think Dallas did or said that was just right?
3. What are your feelings and thoughts about Jewel's journey?
4. Relationships are complicated. What are your impressions of Roxy and Carl as a couple? If they came to you for advice, what might you offer?
5. Forgiveness is not easy. It includes letting the past go. What are your thoughts and experiences around forgiveness? Can retribution and forgiveness happen at the same time?
6. To what degree are you a theater lover? What are some of your favorite plays?
7. Roxy is a struggling writer. What are some of the creative endeavors you enjoy? What's your journey been like?
8. If you were explain Reckonings to someone, what would you say?
9. What questions would you like to ask the author?
